Several fine prospects for rain the past week, but not much fell. The situation is, indeed, growing serious, and if we do not have some good rains soon much loss will result. Some fair rains have been reported round about us. The last day or two have been cold. Tuesday night the thermometer recorded 38. Just about a year ago a low record of 23 was made.

Mrs. Lucretia Thompson is here from Arcadia where she is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. N. B. Henry, visiting friends. She came here from Rector, Ark., where she visited her grandson, Crane Henry. In spite of her advanced years Mrs. Thompson is able to enjoy life and takes a keen interest in the current happenings.—Dunklin Democrat.

Mr. Delano tells us that in looking over his records last week he found that the rainfall for the month of March and April, 1879, was exactly what it was for the same two months this year, the total for the two months being 2.40 inches. In 1879, it continued dry until August when there came a nine inch rain. Let us hope we will not have to wait until August this year.

We had a very pleasant call last Thursday afternoon from our old friend, T. F. Walsh, now of St. Louis, but who for so many years had charge of the Sycamore Granite Company's affairs at Graniteville. Mr. Walsh has been in St. Louis more than ten years now, but the city seems to agree with him and we are glad to say he is looking exceedingly well. His trip here was to look over the Allen lands in this vicinity.

The County Court Monday named the Bank of Ironton as County Depository for the ensuing two years, that institution agreeing to pay 2 1/2 per cent on daily balances. There were no other bids before the Court. Ten years ago the Bank of Ironton offered to pay 4 3/8ths per cent on daily balances. The bond required by the county from the depository is $60,000. The bank has ten days in which to file this bond.

Seven cases of small pox have been reported this week in the families of James and Wm. Wann at West Elvins. The County Court has taken the matter in hand and has established a rigid quarantine. He returned home about two weeks ago and shortly after was taken ill.—Lead Belt News.

A suit of more than usual interest was decided in the circuit court at Clayton last Friday, says the De Soto Republican. It was the case of the Belgrade Live Stock Co., against the Peoples' Bank of this city, and involved about $3,200. It seems that a customer of the bank gave check to the live stock company, of which J. E. and J. G. Walden are members. The bank turned the checks down on the ground that the accountants, which they were drawn was overdrawn. The Waltons then brought suit to compel the bank to pay the check. The case came up in the circuit court here and then went to Clayton on a change of venue, by order of Judge Dearing. The trial was before a jury and resulted in a verdict for the bank.—Potosi Journal.

W. A. Cloud, of St. Louis, spent the latter part of last week here with relatives and friends here and at Flat River. He made The News a fine and appreciated call on last Saturday. He told us that on Thursday of last week he sold the barber shop which he had owned and operated for the past four years. He has been in the barber business for the past thirty-two years and says he thinks he will not re-engage in the business, but will try something else for awhile. He and his family like the city fine and he thinks they will continue to make St. Louis their home, although old Farmington looked mighty good to him. His many friends here were glad to see him again. His niece, Miss Louise Hough, accompanied him back to the city for a short visit.—Farmington News.

The Piedmont B. Y. P. U. is planning to rent two large tents to be used as headquarters at the Heights in August. The tents will accommodate thirty people, and they have planned to use one tent for the gentlemen and the other for the ladies. Action will be taken to secure the tents as soon as a canvass of the members is completed and the Union learns who will go in the party. Some ten or twelve members have signified their intention of going in this party but they are desirous of getting up a party of about thirty, as the expense will be much less if that number go than if the party consists of only a few. It is not necessary that anyone should be a member of the B. Y. P. U. in order to join in this excursion, as anyone who desires to go is welcome. Arrangements will be made soon and anyone wishing to go had best take the matter up with the Union at once.—Piedmont Baptist Messenger.

The stove plant and heading factory of L. D. Beal, near West Fork post-office, was consumed by fire last Sunday night at about 11 o'clock. This is the second time the plant has been destroyed by fire in the past two or three years. Our informant says the mill has not been "fired-up" for two days, and it is supposed that the fire was of an incendiary origin. At the time of the fire there were several thousand dollars worth of manufactured stock on the yard, but the fire did not damage it. We did not learn the amount of the loss or whether the plant was insured or not. It is to be regretted that we have people in our county who would resort to such means to "get even" or gratify a trivial personal grievance. A man who will apply the torch to his neighbor's dwelling, barn or mill would not hesitate to commit murder. Mr. Beal has another plant of the same kind near Greeley.—Centerville Outlook.

Rev. H. C. Harting, pastor of the Flat River Lutheran Church, was married in St. Louis Wednesday evening to Miss Lydia Kirchhoff, of that city. The ceremony occurred at the home of bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Kirchhoff, at 2243 Shenandoah Avenue, and was solemnized by Rev. F. W. Weidmann, formerly pastor of the Lutheran church of Farmington. Rev. Weidmann is now pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church in the city and the bride of this occasion is a prominent active member of his congregation. After a short honeymoon visit in the city, Rev. and Mrs. Harting will return to Flat River where they will reside in a newly furnished home in the east part of town. Rev. Harting is a native of New Zealand, but has been in the United States the past nine years preparing for the ministry. He is a graduate of the Concordia Seminary, of St. Louis, and came to Flat River following the completion of his work at that school last August. He also has charge of the Lutheran work at Boone Terre, Bismarck and Pilot Knob. The News joins friends in wishing Rev. Harting and his bride a life of much happiness. Rev. Harting preached for Rev. Weidmann at the Trinity church last Sunday.—Farmington News.

On last Wednesday, April 28, 1915, Wm. T. Gay, of Ironton, filed in the office of the Circuit Clerk of Iron County a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States. The declaration states that Wm. T. Tucker Gay was born in Chamley, England, December 24, 1847, and came to America in 1849, landing at New York. The applicant for naturalization papers has been a resident of Ironton for probably fifty years, and since he became of age has exercised the right of franchise; for many years he was a member of the Ironton school board and city council and about 1885 was elected Mayor of the City of Ironton, which place he held until January, 1895, when he resigned to serve as a member of the Missouri legislature from Iron county. In 1910 he was elected Presiding Justice of the County Court of Iron County, which office he filled for four years, his term expiring the first of this year. It is said that Mr. Gay became acquainted with the fact that he was not a citizen of this country through information given him by a special agent of the Naturalization Service of the Department of Labor who was in Ironton last week making investigation in reference to a couple of Hungarians from Pilot Knob who were seeking to be naturalized.

Of Interest to Timber Buyers.

The following letter received by Dr. R. W. Gay last week, from St. Louis, will be read with shame and regret by all who take interest in the welfare and good name of the community. It is hoped the parties guilty of the wrong complained of may soon receive their just deserts, and, in bringing that about, our people will lend a helping hand:

DEAR DOCTOR—Mr. H. N. Spencer of this city was down to Arcadia Sunday and took a trip up around the Club grounds, and says he was greatly surprised to find that much of the good timber is being cut. Some of the trees are lying on the ground, apparently to be removed later; and that in cutting the trees some have been cut at shoulder height, leaving objectionable stumps.

While I have resigned as an officer and member of the Club, I am still hoping that the time may come when conditions will permit a New Arcadia Club to be built on the old site, so I have called up Mr. Saunders the Attorney, who said there was a severe penalty for such work and that he would take up the matter with Mr. Hope and see if something could not be done to stop it.

As you are an interested local member, I am informing you, as you may be able to take up the matter with the county authorities and get quick action.

With best wishes, I am,
Yours very truly,
O. C. CONKLING.

Present at Sunday School, 78; absent 31; daily devotionals, 13; church prayer, 11; offering $2.45. This is the lowest record we have had for a long time. Number 8 was the only class that had a full attendance, but all the officers and teachers were present.

The monthly business meeting and social will be held at Mrs. A. M. Allen's Thursday evening. A full attendance is desired. Kenneth Curry is leader for next Sunday evening.
The Quarterly Conference showed the church in a fairly good condition. Instead of a sermon Sunday morning, the pastor will read the second half of the General Rules. The theme Sunday night will be "Man of Prayer." Singing will be both morning and evening. You are welcome.

Des Arc News.

I am 73 years old to-day (Sunday.) Fifty-two years to-day I was in the battle of Chancellerville, 1863, Spotsylvania County, Va. Our army under General Lee, Jackson, Longstreet and D. H. Hill, fought the battle of Chancellerville, Va., in 1863. I was then a member of Company I, 5th Va. Cavalry, under command of General E. B. Stuart. We had fought the advance guard of General Hooker several days, but on May the 2d, which was Sunday, the main battle began and Monday on May the 3d by dark the Union Army was in full retreat. It was in that battle we lost the greatest General the world has ever known (Stonewall Jackson.) About twilight on May the 2d, he with his staff, rode over in the enemy's lines and on returning our men shot him, thinking it was the Union Cavalry. He was taken back to the hospital tent and kept there until morning of the 3d, and he was taken to Richmond, where he died the following Sunday, May 10th.

This was one of the severest battles that was ever fought in Va. The trees and under brush were green and it was more of a brush thicket than anything else. Every twig was cut by the bullets and shells. I never saw as many dead men in any battle before. To look at the scene it did not look like any men could have passed through this thicket without being killed. General Stuart took charge of General Jackson's army the next day. It was a great victory for the Confederate Army and now while I am writing this little story I cannot help from thanking God for prolonging my life these many long years.

While on the Missouri Southern Railway I met my old friend, Lat Mathews. He is looking well and very busy surveying, etc. At Ellington I called on my friend, M. L. Copeland. He carries a large stock of merchandise and also has an automobile, which he enjoys in his old age. They are making some good roads in Reynolds County. At Reynolds I called on the Ruble Brothers. They are doing a fine business, and carry a big stock of goods. The manager, Mr. Jas. Carrynam, is an up-to-date business man. They have lately bought the Dr. Moffit farm on Black River. I was at Taskes. D. F. Stevenson and a party, including their families, had gone on a two days' fishing trip. I also stayed a short while at Ben Henson's mill. He is putting in 100 acres of corn and has over 40 young calves. While at Bertrand Saturday I met Dr. Chas. Jones. He is farming on a big scale. 129 acres in corn.

Fritz Warncke has bought the Lee Jackson farm near Annapolis, from Mrs. John Benson. Consideration $2800. I don't see why Chas. E. Bolch did not buy this farm as he owns all the best farms around Annapolis. Wm. Stevenson was in Ironton last week attending court.
C. L. Stevenson from Libourn is here this week.
D. A. White from Brunot was in town Saturday on his way to Ironton. Albert Fahland and wife are visiting relatives at Bellevue.

Mrs. Wm. Thompson and children have returned home from Hendrickson.
Mrs. N. A. White went to Ironton Saturday.

Dr. A. Hunt, son of George Hunt, near Lesterville, spent Sunday here. He is a dentist and has an office in St. Louis.

O. W. Ramsey and family passed through our town last Friday enroute to their home in Bismarck. They had been on a visit to Belgrade.

Miss Jenna Logan of St. Louis was here a few days last week. When she returned she took her 5 passenger car back to the city. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Long and Miss Alice Gayer.

Mrs. Annie Hogan and daughter, Miss Mary, of Knob Noster, Mo., and Mrs. John Haral of Bismarck were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bell and other relatives last week.

Mr. John Townsend, of Illinois, and sister, Mrs. Joe Townsend of Belgrade, visited Mr. and Mrs. Newton Warren a few days last week.

Mrs. Russell Queen visited her father at Irondale last week. Arthur Stephens of St. Louis was a guest in the home of Frank Parker last Saturday and Sunday. We are inclined to think Mr. Stephens has an important business here, occasionally.

The Caledonian home talent play, at Bellevue Masonic Hall, on last Friday evening, was well rendered. The inclemency of the weather prevented there being a full house. The Ladies Aid served cake and cream at the close of the entertainment.
